A Few Minutes of Your Time Will Keep You Out of the Courthouse

Lawsuits are time-consuming, expensive and stressful. There are so many variables that can impact the outcome of a trial, even the best lawyers cannot guarantee you a win.

A few minutes of your time could help you avoid ever stepping foot into a courthouse. Pam's signature talk is based on her twenty-four years of defending business owners, HR Directors and supervisors in the courtroom. Pam provides audiences with a road-map to avoid employment law claims and lawsuits.

Every leader needs to know a handful of key legal issues to stay out of trouble – spending an hour with Pam can provide you the valuable insights around these issues.

Every entrepreneur needs to hear this – untrained supervisors are like ticking time bombs.
